DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

A fee of $1,500 for each directors' meeting attended is payable to directors who are not also employees of the Company. The Chairman and other members of the Compensation and Audit Committees also receive a fee of $5,000 and $2,500, respectively, per year, for service on each such committee.

During fiscal 1996, the Company retained Joseph Fiorita as a consultant to perform certain accounting and tax services. Fees paid to Mr. Fiorita in this capacity aggregated $46,000.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

The Company continues to lease a building at one of its manufacturing facilities and a contiguous parcel of land from entities controlled by Constantine S. Macricostas. The rent paid to these entities for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1996 was $135,328.

Financing for construction of such leased building and certain equipment was provided through the sale of industrial development bonds issued by the Connecticut Development Authority (the "CDA"). As lessee, the Company was obligated to serve as guarantor of certain of the bonds issued by the CDA. As of October 31, 1996 there were outstanding a total of approximately $546,000 of industrial development bonds for which the Company serves as guarantor.

The Company believes that the terms of the transactions described above with affiliated persons were no less favorable to the Company than the Company could have obtained from non-affiliated parties.

The Company and Toppan have engaged in numerous ongoing commercial transactions for the purchase and sale of raw materials and finished goods at prices based upon competitive market prices. The total amount of sales by the Company to or from Toppan aggregated approximately $7,212,000 during fiscal 1996. The Company believes these transactions are negotiated as arm's-length transactions and were no less favorable to the Company than the Company could have obtained from non-affiliated parties. The Company and Toppan also entered into an agreement whereby the companies share certain technology.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors was established during fiscal 1992 and is responsible for the establishment of executive compensation and administration of the Company's stock plans.

The Committee's philosophy is that executive compensation must be competitive with other comparable employers to insure that qualified employees can be attracted and retained and that the Company's compensation practices should provide incentives and rewards for achieving or exceeding company goals and for creating a return to the Company's shareholders. The Committee uses three components to achieve these goals: base salary, bonuses and stock based awards.

The Committee evaluates and establishes base salary levels in light of economic conditions and comparisons to other similarly situated companies. Bonuses, if any, are dependent upon a subjective evaluation of the Company's performance and achievement of its financial and other goals during the relevant period. Stock options and restricted stock awards, which the Compensation Committee believes provide a strong link between executive compensation and shareholder return, are used to provide long-term incentives which are based on shareholder return.

While Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility of certain compensation (in excess of $1,000,000 per year) paid by the Company to named executive officers unless certain formal requirements are satisfied, the Committee believes that its ability to subjectively evaluate executive officer performance is an important part of its function and its ability to provide incentives. Additionally, compensation to the named executive officers has historically not exceeded deductibility limits under this Section. Accordingly, the Committee has not pursued adoption of compensation programs which comply with such Section although the Committee continues to consider the advisability of such adoption.

In establishing compensation levels for the executive officers of the Company, the Committee in 1992 considered compensation at companies in the electronics industries with similar levels of sales and capital. The companies considered were not necessarily the same as those included in the performance chart below due to the difference in the size of the companies considered. The Committee adjusted executive compensation in connection with this review. Generally, the Committee believes that its expectation of performance from the Company and its executive officers should allow executive compensation to fall within the median to 75th percentile of compensation at this comparison group. Since that time, salary adjustments for the executive officers have been in accordance with the salary adjustment budgets for the Company's other employees. The Committee believes that its three-part approach provides reasonable compensation to the executive which is aligned with the Company's needs and results and balances both short and long-term goals.

Mr. Macricostas' compensation for 1996 was determined based on this analysis. Mr. Macricostas' base salary was adjusted in 1996 in accordance with the salary budget for other employees of the Company. The Committee also approved the payment of a bonus to Mr. Macricostas based on its subjective evaluation of his efforts during fiscal 1996 and of the Company's performance during the year. Prominent factors in this determination were the Company's ability to recognize record levels of sales, earnings and other performance criteria during the year and to successfully achieve its goal of increasing its international presence.

The Committed also considered that its prior stock based awards did not extend beyond fiscal 1996 and granted Mr. Macricostas additional stock options to maintain the long-term component of his compensation.

The compensation for the other executive officers was determined based on the same factors used to determine Mr. Macricostas' compensation.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph A. Fiorita, Jr.
Walter M. Fiederowicz
